

THE VENEZUELA WAR.

The Revolution Seems to Go on in Real Earnest.

A BLOODY BATTLE REPORTED

And Many Dead and Dying Left on the Field—An Attack on Puerto Cabello Expected Every Moment. An Official Denial of the Story, Which is Said to Have Been Sent Out for an Obvious Purpose.

New York, April 21.—Under date of Puerto Cabello, Venezuela, the Herald this morning prints the following special cable news: This picturesque seaport is in a terrible state of excitement over the utter rout of the government troops on April 14. At sundown on that date Palacios' army made its final and futile attempt to dislodge a force of insurgents under command of General Mora, who were entrenched at a spot just beyond Polite.

Twice the government soldiers had attacked the enemy and failed to divert it from its position. Discouraged over their ill success Palacios' troops showed signs of panic, but under appeals of their leader they rallied and again charged the foe. The encounter was brief but furious. They were defeated all along the line, and turning fled in every direction. The insurgents followed in hot pursuit, and did not abandon it until the terror-stricken government troops were well on the road to this town.

There were many dead, dying and wounded left on the battle field. Some of them were rebels, but the large majority were followers of Palacios. The government soldiers did not stop to carry their dead and injured from the scene of the rout, but struggled into Puerto Cabello, starting the whole town with their story of complete defeat.

Nothing definite could be learned as to the exact number of those killed, but it is officially announced that the government lost one-third of its force in the encounter. Of this loss by far the greater proportion was caused by desertions. As soon as Palacios' men saw that they were overcome, many of them threw down their arms and went over to the enemy.

Every one here is expecting that Puerto Cabello will be attacked at any moment by the revolutionists. People are hurrying from town to places of safety taking with them their movable property.

It is probable that General Mora will not at present attempt the capture of Puerto Cabello.

In all likelihood he will remain where he now is, at Moron, and Punta Chavez, two important points, and endeavor to hold them.

It Is Denied.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.—General Peraza, the Venezuelan minister at Washington, to-day received the following dispatch from his government:

"CARACAS, April 21.

"Minister of Venezuela, Washington.

"The states of Andes and Zamora have submitted to the government. Crespo is fleeing. There is only one guerrilla left in Carabobo.

"Deny the false news published with the purpose of deceiving commerce and to get arms and ammunition.

"PRESIDENT."

Why Bob Can't Accept.

CHICAGO, April 21.—Pugilist Fitzsimmons has written a reply to Corbett's letter stating that as he has to leave Chicago immediately after his entertainment Saturday night in the police to keep engagements, and as the police will not allow a knock out exhibition to be given in the city he cannot accept Corbett's challenge to meet him next Saturday afternoon.

Painful Spectacles

the women who try to wash without Pearlina. It's hard to look at, but it's harder yet to do it. Washing with Pearlina is easy—easy for weak backs, easy on delicate fabrics. It does away with the Rub, Rub, Rub. There is nothing as convenient—nothing so effective. Washing with Pearlina is safe; millions know it, and can tell the millions who want to know.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearlina." IT'S FALSE—Pearlina is never peddled. If your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back.
